Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Arleen G. Kranz, who has dedicated the past 45 years to serving the documentation and communication of quality health care delivered in South Dakota with Brown Clinic in Watertown, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, For 45 years Arleen has dedicated most of her career as an medical transcriptionist by providing exemplary support to the Brown Clinic providers and staff; and,

Whereas, Arleen has helped to serve and train numerous co-workers and survived three computer system implementations without hesitation; and,

Whereas, Arleen consistently served above and beyond expectations and could be counted on to step up wherever the need was in the organization; and,

Whereas, Arleen is a shining example of the commitment of South Dakota and the health care community, serving patients and their families; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 26, 2016, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
